The Sir Norman Lamb Coalition for Young People, established by Sir Norman Lamb and Norfolk Community Foundation, brings together Norfolk-based VCSE organisations that work to support the wellbeing of children and young people aged 0-25 years to work collectively to:

- Support children and young people to have good mental health and wellbeing
- Enable children and young people to thrive
- Improve transitions into and experiences of adulthood

The Coalition will do this by:

- Sharing best practice and learning from one another
- Providing and accessing training opportunities
- Providing access to shared resources and information
- Raising the profile of the work of members
- Having a collective voice
- Ensuring recognition of the networks of support for children and young people's wellbeing provided by VCSE organisations across the county, via links with the Voluntary Sector Forum
- Drawing in funding to support sustainability
- Linking up with the work of the Norfolk CYPMH Alliance
- Supporting the links between the NSFT and community services to facilitate a better understanding of how each work
- Developing links with the Young People's Advisory Groups, which are linked to the Wellbeing Hubs (to be established)

And make a commitment to:

- The participation of children and young people in the design and running of services
- Feed in views of the children, young people and families you work with
- Contributing to consultation and co-production opportunities
- Work toward the outcomes of the Coalition
- Work collaboratively with other members of the Coalition, contributing their expertise and support
- Ongoing learning and development
- Meet a set of organisational and delivery standards
- Be an active member of the Coalition, including regular attendance at Coalition meetings
- Contribute to the evaluation of the work of the Coalition
- Help disseminate the Coalition's work
